

Jonathan Slade

High School Athlete of the Year

Jonathan Slade is an eighteen year old student athlete at Eastside Memorial High School in Austin, Texas. He is a senior and will graduate in June 2014. Jonathan is a B student and participated in many sports. He was on the football team, wrestling team, and track team. This school year, he was selected as the captain for the football, wrestling, and track teams.

Even in each sports season, he maintained an A or B average and made the A/B Honor Roll. Huston Tillotson University has offered Jonathan a track scholarship and Bacone College in Muskogee, Oklahoma has offered him a dual football and wrestling scholarship.

Jonathan does community work outside of school with the University of Texas Blazers. The Texas /Blazers are an honorary service organization known for community involvement, official host for the University of Texas and he mentors students at Eastside Memorial High School.

Jonathan is a strong believer in Christianity and serves God as an usher for the children's church and sings with the young men's choir at First Baptist Church.