

Isaac Robinson
PVIL-UIL "Bridging the Gap"

Isaac Robinson is a native of San Marcos, but graduated from L.C. Anderson HS in Austin where he played football for three seasons including 1962 and 1963 when he lettered. Robinson played offense and defense and was named All-District linebacker as a senior.

He has been self-employed in the printing business since 1971 and attends the Friendly Will Baptist Church where he works with the Brotherhood, Financial Committee, and sings in the choir.

William C. Ward
PVIL-UIL "Bridging the Gap"

William C. Ward played basketball at L.C. Anderson HS in Austin from 1964-68. As a senior, he was a member of the first Anderson team to compete in the University Interscholastic League. That team won the 13-4A district championship and "Sweet Daddy" Ward secured the title by making the game-winning shot as time ran out against Killeen.

He attended Huston-Tillotson College, then started a career with IBM that lasted for 35 years. He retired in 2005.

Ward has been married for 45 years to his high school sweetheart, Linda, and the couple has two sons, Spencer and Gregg. They have two grandsons, Ryan and Jason. Ward is an avid golfer.
